AGUA DE MAGNOLIA.—The prettiest thing, the "sweetest thing," and the most of it for the least money. It over comes the odor of perspiration; softens and adds delicacy to the skin; is a delightful perfumey allays headache and inflammation, and is a necessary composition in the sick-room, in the nursery, and upon the toilet sideboard. It can be obtained everywhere at one dollar per bottle.

S. T.—1860.—X.—The amount of Plantation Bitters sold in one year is something startling. They would fill Broadway six feet high, from the Park to 4th street.—Drake's manufactory is one of the institutions of N. York. It is said that Drake painted all the rocks in the eastern States with his celebrated "S. T.—1860—X." and then got the old granny legislators to pass a law to prevent disfiguring the face of nature," which gives him a monopoly. We do not know how this is, but we do know the Plantation Bitters sell as no other article ever did. They are used by all classes of the community, and are death on Dyspepsia—certain. They are very invigorating when languid and weak, and a great appetizer.

"In lifting the kettle from the fire I scalded myself very severely—one hand almost to a crisp. The torture was unbearable. * * * The Mexican Mustang Liniment relieved the pain almost immediately. It healed rapidly, and left very little scar.

CHAS. FOSTER, 420 Broad st., Philada."

This is merely a sample of what the Mustang Liniment will do. It is invaluable in all cases of wounds, swellings, sprains, cuts bruises, spavins, etc., either upon man or beast.

Beware of counterfeits. None is genuine unless wrapped in fine steel plate engravings, bearing the signature of O. W. Westbrook, Chemist, and the private stamp of DIXAS BARNES & Co., New York.

All who value a beautiful head of hair, and its preservation from premature baldness and turning gray, will not fail to use Lyon's celebrated Kathairon. It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy, eradicates dandruff, and causes the hair to grow with luxuriant beauty. It is sold everywhere. E. THOMAS LYON, Chemist, N. Y.

WHAT DID IT?—A young lady, returning to her country home after a sojourn of a few months in New York, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a rustic, flushed face, she had a soft, ruby complexion, of almost marble smoothness; and instead of 22, she really appeared but 17. She told them plainly she used Hagan's Magnolia Balm, and would not be without it. Any lady can improve her personal appearance very much by using this article. It can be ordered of any Druggist for only 50 cents.

Heimstreet's inimitable Hair Coloring has been steadily growing in favor for over twenty years. It acts upon the absorbents at the roots of the hair, and changes it to its original color by degrees. All instantaneous dyes darken and injure the hair. Heimstreet's is not a dye, but is certainum its results, promotes its growth, and is a beautiful Hair Dressing. Price 50 cents and $1,00. Sold by all dealers.

Saratoga Spring Water, sold by all Druggists.

LYON'S EXTRACT OF PURE JAMAICA GINGER—for Indigestion, Nausea, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Cholera Morbus, &c., when a warming genial stimulant is required. Its careful preparation and entire purity make it a cheap and reliable article for culinary purposes. Sold everywhere at 50 cents per bottle.

"I know of no mode in which a loyal citizen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by sustaining the Flag, the Constitution and the Union, under all circumstances, and UNDER EVERY ADMINISTRATION REGARDLESS OF PARTY POLITICS, AGAINST ALL ASSAILANTS, AT HOME AND ABROAD."—STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.

☞John H. Surratt, now in prison in Washington, will be put upon trial in March for aiding in the assassination of President Lincoln. It will be remembered that his mother was tried for the same offence, convicted and hung.

The U. S. Senate is busy considering the appointments of the President. Confirmations and rejections are made daily. The Assessor and Collector of this District, and P. M. of this place still hang fire. We should regret to hear of the rejection of any of the present occupants. They are good officers and worthy men.

BARNUM, the showman, has been nominated by the Republicans in Connecticut, for a seat in Congress. It is supposed that as Barnum succeeded so well in swindling the people as a showman he can swindle them as a Congressman. Congress will soon "play out" with such material as Barnum, Morrissey, Ashley, and others we might name.

Reconstruction.

A bill for the reconstruction of the Rebel States—passed by a large majority of the Senate and House of Representatives—is now before the President, and it is expected that he will return it by Wednesday or Thursday of this week either with his approval or veto. It is the best measure that can be expected from the present or next Congress, and as such the people of all parties are anxious that he should approve it. True, it is not what the politicians of the "Democratic" party want—neither is it what the extreme Radicals, such as Stevens, Sumner & Co., want—neither is it what the rebels want—but it is the best they can have, and if all parties are wise they will accept the bill now in the hands of the President. The bill as it finally passed both Houses will be found in another column.

A TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT.—There appears to be a grand strike to be made in favor of the temperance movement. The State Convention meets at Harrisburg to-day, Tuesday, to which representatives have been sent from every section in the Commonwealth. It is the general hope that some measures will be taken by that Convention that will be of a permanent effect in abolishing the evils of the liquor traffic to some extent. An organization of this nature has much to contend with, and we apprehend it will take time for the people generally to become fully alive to the importance of removing the evils attending the great and growing incubus of intemperance. It is true that the temperance organizations are doing good, but their march at present is but slow compared to what is necessary to counteract the still more rapid strides of its opponent. If, by the means of this Convention, any measure can be adopted that will check Intemperance, great good will thus be accomplished. Such is the strength of those who deal in liquor, and such the power which they exert upon their victims, that temperance men will have to contest the field inch by inch before they can break their ranks. We feel confident that the influence exerted by liquor-dealers will eventually be weakened, while the reign of the indiscriminate vender of the same must very shortly come to an end. All that is necessary is for the people to consider the matter with an unbiassed mind, and reflect upon the ruin and havoc made by an apparently encouraged traffic.

Whatever measures are deemed expedient, by the Convention, for the speedy removal of intemperance should receive the sympathy and support of good, temperate and christian men everywhere.

AT the celebration of Washington's Birthday in Philadelphia, the main feature of the day was the presentation of the chair occupied by John Hancock while President of the Continental Congress, and also the table upon which the Declaration of Independence was signed. The object of this presentation is, that the table and chair may be deposited and preserved by the city corporation in Independence Hall. Louis W. Hall, speaker of the Senate, made the presentation speech.

☞The Tennessee Senate has passed the bill conferring suffrage upon negroes. A motion to strike out the clause preventing them from serving on juries or holding office was rejected by a tie vote. The bill having previously passed the House is now a law, unless reconsidered, and that event is not probable.

☞The President it is thought, will allow the bill prohibiting him from removing any one from office without the consent of the Senate, to become a law without a veto or approval.

EDUCATION OF WOMEN.—It is a grand mistaken notion entertained by some that a woman does not need as liberal an education as a man. We can often hear men lamenting the deficiency in education of women with whom they are acquainted, and yet in the midst of their lamentations will argue that it is as it should be. They deem that her sphere is that entirely of the domestic circle, and all the education she requires is that which will fit her for the discharge of practical home duties. It is enough, they consider, that she is educated to be a dutiful wife, a devoted mother, and an economical housekeeper. The husband, in such a situation, if possessing an education, rather seeks the association of the learned than listen to the prattle of his wife; and the children are sent to school "to keep them out of mischief," the mother failing to give that necessary co-operation in the instruction of youth, which teachers feel so much.

It appears that custom has done much to prejudice men against the education of girls. As an instance, in many States there are schools for boys, supported by appropriations of the state Legislatures, while there are no such provisions for the girls of the Commonwealth. This is a defect which should be remedied. It is altogether unfair that boys should have advantages in education, of which the girls are deprived. We notice that in the West, the proper step has been made. Mr. Childs of the Michigan State Legislature, has presented a bill to establish an institution of learning to be called the Michigan Female College. The College is to furnish the young women of that State with the means of acquiring a thorough knowledge of the various branches of literature, science and art. How long will it be before Pennsylvania and her sister States shall follow the example so worthily set the whole country by Michigan.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE.—The Philadelphia Evening Telegraph of the 20th says the exercise of the elective franchise was practically illustrated on Tuesday, at the election for officers of the Mercantile Library. A poll was opened for female stockholders in the same room where the men voted, and the ladies cast 156 votes, the business of voting on the part of both sexes proceeding at the same time without the slightest confusion or disorder, although the crowd in attendance was quite as large as that to be witnessed at many of the polls at a regular election for the officers of government. The ladies walked up and deposited their ballots with as much sang-froid as though they had been accustomed to voting all their lives. As illustrating how the thing might be done, this voting at the Mercantile Library election is worthy of note.

Important Bills.

Bills with the following provisions are now before our Legislature and we hope our member will "pitch in" and see that our county is included:

Relating to the protection of deer and wild turkeys and the transportation of deer and venison.

"This bill makes it unlawful for any railroad, express, or transportation company to transport any deer or venison taken or killed within the State, between January 1 and August 1, the penalty being $100 for the offense. The penalty for killing any buck, doe, or fawn out of season, shall be $50. It shall be unlawful for any person to take or kill wild turkeys, between January 1 and September 1, or to snare, gin, trap, or pen them at any time, under penalty of $10 for each offense."

"One inflicting a penalty of $100 for any newspaper to publish any gift enterprise or scheme in the shape of lotteries to dispose of real estate, jewelry, greenbacks, or other things of value."

FENIAN OUTBREAK IN IRELAND.—Intelligence from Ireland by the electric cable is to the effect that there has been a Fenian rising in the counties of Kerry and Cork. A band of 800 is reported to have retreated to the hills near Killarney, but they have, it is said, been surrounded by National troops, and their chances of escape were thought to be small. The county of Kerry has been proclaimed in a state of siege, and Ireland is being filled with government troops. A dispatch dated the 16th, claims that the present rising has been totally suppressed.

MURDER IN A COURT ROOM.—A German named George Ellar was arrested in Philadelphia on a charge of committing a rape on Louisa Leis, a little girl eleven years of age. The accused was arrested and taken to Moyamensing prison. On Wednesday last the accused was to have been tried in the Quarter Sessions Court, in Philadelphia. The Bulletin says that at ten o'clock the prison van was driven up, as usual, to the Sixth street entrance of the Court House, and one or two prisoners had been taken into the Court room and placed in the dock, and officer David Banks followed with Ellar in his charge.

The Court room was crowded as usual. Mrs. Leis and her daughter occupied seats upon the south side of the room. Leis was seated on the end of a settee near the western entrance of the Court room. As officer Banks entered the door with his prisoner, Leis arose, and drawing a revolver from an inside pocket of his coat, he deliberately fired at Ellar. The shot took effect in the region of the heart, and the prisoner falling back into the arms of Officer Kritzer, uttered the exclamations, "Oh! Oh! Oh!" The wounded man was at once carried into the office of the Clerk of the Court, where he died in a minute or two.

"Do you know the prisoner, Mr. Wagings?" "Yes, to the bone." "What is his character?" "Didn't know he had any!" "Does he live near you?" "So near that he has only spent six shillings for firewood in eight years."

Our exchanges all concur in the following advice to their patrons: "Never buy goods of those who don't advertise. They sell so little that they have to sell dear." It would be doing our advertisers injustice if we didn't say so too. Everybody should advertise.

Judge Cady, who was strongly "anti-woman's rights," used to address his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, as "My Dear Sir." She is doing de-sir-ving sir-vice to a sir-cle of sirs and sir-vants, by her sir-cumlocution which is sir-culating freely. That is a sir-tainty we are willing to sir-tify to.

Senator Yates, of Illinois, has been converted to temperance by the new Congressional organization. Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware, is also a hopeful member of the society. This is the best "restoration plan" that Congress could possibly adopt, and we hope the new society will be as permanent as the will of the people. There could be no more pitiable or disgraceful sight than a drunken representative of the people.

There was a fire at Fairfax Court House, Virginia, the other week, which burned down five houses. It was successfully fought, in the absence of engines, with snow. A good story is told of a very old gentleman, a farmer of the neighborhood, who came in after the fire had died away, and asked the first man whom he met—"Are they gone?" "Who gone?" "Why, the Yankees. I see they have been in again and burnt something."

A person who saw it informs the editor of the Jamestown Journal of a singular accident which happened last week on the Atlantic & Great Western Railroad, a few miles east of here. A man was sitting with his feet resting on the sill of one of the windows, which was open, and while the train run over a truss bridge, both his feet were taken off.—Jokus thinks this a sensation story, behind which is concealed a rather good "goak," as such things happen often, but for the good of the Railroad Company, editors say nothing.

The Reconstruction Bill.

The following is a correct copy of the reconstruction bill as it passed both Houses and was sent to the President for approval.

Whereas, No legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exist in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas.

And whereas, It is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States and loyal and republican State governments be legally established: therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts, and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed; and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the First district; North Carolina and South Carolina the Second district; Georgia, Alabama, and Florida the Third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the Fourth district, and Louisiana and Texas the Fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army not below the rank of brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer as signed as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property: to suppress insurrection, disorder, and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals; and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders; or when, in his judgment, it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district; and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions; provided, that no sentence of death under the provisions of this act shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President of the United States.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitutional government, in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty-one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color, or previous condition, who have been residents in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in rebellion or for felony at common law, and when such Constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for election of delegates; when such Constitution shall be adopted by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification who are qualified as electors for delegates, and when such Constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same, and when said State, by a vote of its Legislature, elected under said Constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article 14; and when said article shall have become a part of the Constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be in operation in said State: Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by the said proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of a convention to frame a constitution for any said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for a member of said convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control, or supersede the same, and in all elections to any office under such provisional government all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none other, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act, and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional government who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

The bill passed the House by a strict party vote, yeas 125, nays 41. It passed the Senate by a vote of 35 yeas to nays, Buckalew, Cowan, Davis, Hendricks, Nesmith, Patterson, Saulsbury, 7.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Speech of Reverdy Johnson on the Reconstruction Bill.

Feb. 20.—The following is the speech of Hon Reverdy Johnson, Senator in Congress from Maryland, delivered in the Senate to-day, on the bill to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, which passed the Senate to-night:

Mr. Johnson. Mr. President: I have felt a solicitude for the condition of the country, consequent upon the exclusion of the Southern States from their right of representation in this body, that I want words to express. The view that I have entertained is that, in their present condition, they are entitled to be represented. But the Congress of the United States, from the termination of the rebellion to the present time, have taken a different view, and I have lost all hope of seeing them at any early date, if at any day with the consent of Congress, reinstated in their original condition.

Besides, the interest, the vital interest, which the people of the South necessarily have in the present state of things, the interest of the other States is almost as great. As long as it continues, more or less will the reputation of the country suffer. I have been, therefore, from the first, ready to agree to any proposition which I believed would result in bringing the Southern States back, however much I may be opposed to the conditions which might be exacted of them.

Nothing can be worse that the state in which they are now placed. Desolation around them, all rights denied them of a political character, and on the floor of the Senate, to say nothing of another branch of the Government, their character as men has been expressed in terms which have caused me nothing but the deepest regret. I know that they are not deserving of such aspersion. I think I know that the descendants of the men of the South who upon so many occasions battled on the field for the honor and glory of the country and contributed so much to the success of our civil government, cannot be such men as some of the members of Congress have designated them. I wish them to be here in our midst to show by their presence that in all particulars, moral and political, intellectual and Christian, they are our equals. The very battles which they have waged in seeking to destroy the Government exhibited deeds of valor of which Rome in her proudest days might have boasted. If I had my own way I would receive them at once in this chamber, with a heart full of conviction that they would be true to their duty to their country, and that they would promote its permanent interest.

But I have not my way. I am obliged, therefore, to acquiesce in the decision of the majority of Congress, however erroneous or unjust I may believe that decision to be, provided I believe that it will end in a comparatively short time in restoring the Southern States to the brotherhood of States. I am unwilling that this Congress shall adjourn without the adoption of some measure that holds out a hope, however distant, that this may be the result of our deliberations, and believing that this will be done by the adoption of the measure as it now stands before you, I shall now give it my vote, not because I approve of it in abstract or in the particular, but because I think I see in it a mode of rescuing the country from the perilous predicament in which it is now placed.

Mr. President, if there be a feeling which should animate the heart of every American, it should be one of generosity, magnanimity, and charity for the men who, although they sought to break asunder the cords of the Union, are now looking with solicitude to their being reinstated.

If there be a feeling which should animate every American citizen, it is that we should be, and at the earliest period, a people one and indivisible, demonstrating to the world that however alarming the few last years may have been, and however they were calculated to cause the lovers of constitutional freedom to despond, the time has come, or the time will speedily come, when the feelings consequent upon that effort will have subsided, and we shall be brought together again and be seen in the undisturbed exercise of duties imposed upon us, and exhibiting to the world a people great in war, and a people capable of being in the end, the war terminated, as great in peace.

STARVATION IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—A late letter to the Baltimore American says: Owing to the devastation by the armies and the almost total failure of a crop, this section of our common country is in a state of starvation; and unless relief is afforded immediately, many human beings must pass to a premature grave for the want of bread.

—We had a week of changeable weather, just passed. We might sum it up in the two seasons, Spring and Winter, having snow one day and the sun the next. The poet might say it resembled Spring taking Winter by the neck.

—The Huntingdon Cornet Band gave the people of the town, (this time nobody in particular and everybody in general,) a serenade on Friday last. A wag says they did some good blowing to revive the importance of the 22d of February.

—We know of many farmers who have sold wonderfully when they advertised their sales in the newspapers. It is hard to detect where the sell comes in—they have so many bidders. Everybody, on the Globe, is invited to try the advertising trick.

—The two temperance orders of this place have sent representatives to the Harrisburg Temperance Convention which meets to-day, Tuesday.—Dr. A. B. Brumbaugh, from Standing Stone Lodge, No. 85, I. O. of G. T., and Henry W. Miller, from Division No. 27, S. of T.

—Rev. J. A. Price, pastor of the M. E. Church, will preach his last sermon in this place, on Sunday evening next. Mr. Price has given general satisfaction by his zeal and ability, to the members of his congregation and the public who have heard him. He retires with their well-wishes.

—A card from "Many Democrats" is published in the Juniata Democrat, which asks the reason why the county printing is given to the Johnson organ of that county. The card closes with the following strange remark: "The Democratic party of this county is not willing to be swallowed up by Johnsonism." The Johnsonites will have to prepare for a rather tough and heavy diet, if such is the case.

—Henry Snyder, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was instantly killed, in the tunnel at Gallitzin, on the 12th inst. He was from Westmoreland county. Ellis Snyder, another brakeman on the same road, was seriously injured on the 13th, in a railroad accident near Perryville. And on the 11th, William Snyder, formerly of this place, a fireman on the Phila & Erie railroad, was instantly killed by the explosion of a locomotive at Renovo, Clinton county.

—Fine Potatoes, for sale at Lewis' Family Grocery.

Missionary Meeting.

The annual missionary meeting of the congregation of the M. E. Church, of this place, of which Rev. J. A. Price is pastor, was held on Sunday last. In the morning an able discourse was delivered by Rev. Thomas Barnhart, P. E., after which contributions to the cause of missions to the amount of $117,55 were received. In the afternoon the anniversary missionary meeting of the Sabbath School connected with the congregation was held, at which the scholars sang some beautiful hymns, conducted by Mr. B. M. Greene, Superintendent, and interesting addresses were delivered by Hon. John Scott, of this place, and Rev. Mr. Barnhart. At the close of the addresses the contributions to the cause which had been collected in the various classes in the school during the month, were paid over, the amount aggregating over $82. The annual report showed the sum of $155,13, being an increase of about $50 over last year's amount. The amount received from the "Reserve Corps," (spectators) was about $5. The special services were continued in the evening, Rev. Barnhart occupying the pulpit. A basket collection was taken up, and the amount received made a total of over $300.

Sons of Temperance.

A Division of the Sons of Temperance was revived in this place on Friday evening last. The Division is composed of some of our oldest citizens, and has already about thirty members, with fair prospects of the numbers increasing. It meets for the present in the Court House Hall, on Saturday evening.

The following are the officers for the present quarter: W. P.—J. Nelson Ball; W. A.—Jesse Summers; R. S.—John E Smucker; A. R. S.—Daniel W. Womelsdorf; T.—E. C. Summers; F. S. John Murray; C.—Isaac Long; A. C.—Ferdinand Corbin; J. S.—J. D. Leonard; O. S.—G. Ashman Miller; Chaplin—B. M. Greene; D. G. W. P.—H. W. Miller.

Town Hall.

It is said that the Burgesses and Town Council have agreed to build a market-house, engine house and town hall, if they can only secure a lot suitable for such a building. If such is the case, we hope somebody will be liberal enough to sell a convenient lot of ground for said desirable object, at a reasonable figure, and confer a lasting favor on the community, give our town what it ought to have, and by all means stop us from continually prating about the subject. We have said so much about it that we wonder our country subscribers haven't given us an over-haul, or sent us in charitable contributions to show our town's people how to be liberal and enterprising.

Painful Accident.

Miss Lizzie Akeley, a young girl living at Mr. Wm. Orbison's, Jr., of this place, met with a painful accident on Saturday evening last. She was bringing some milk from the wagon in a pitcher, which she was holding with both hands, into the house. On reaching the gutter she slipt, and falling on one of the fragments of the pitcher broken by the fall she cut a frightful gash in her right wrist, and severed the artery, thus causing a rapid flow of blood. Her wrist was bandaged by a gentleman who was standing near, and a surgeon immediately sent for. She still suffers some pain, but it is thought she will regain the use of her hand ere long.

Resigned.

Mr. Wm. A. McCormick has resigned his position as Passenger Agent at this station, and will leave for Williamsburg, Blair county, on Friday next, where he has accepted a situation as clerk. Our friend Will has been a very accommodating gentleman, and during the four years he has been acting as agent has given such general satisfaction as to receive the commendations of his employers. He has been connected with the Road, as Telegraph Operator for over eleven years, and during that period has discharged his duties punctually and faithfully. We are sorry to part with him, but wish him success in his new avocation.

Mr. Samuel Martin has been appointed to fill the position.

Borough and Township Elections.

The Spring election for borough and township officers will take place on Friday, March 16. For general information it is stated that the act of Assembly, approved the 30th of March last, requires the names of all candidates to be printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, on one piece of paper similiar to the tickets voted last fall. In the townships the tickets must be headed "township," and the names of all the candidates follow, with the ticket so folded that the word "township" appears on the outside. The tickets in the boroughs are to be the same, with the exception that "borough" is substituted for "township."

Found.

A gentleman on coming to town on Tuesday morning, Feb. 19th, found on the highway between Union Church, in Henderson township, and Huntingdon, a small package of Dry Goods. The owner can have the same by giving a description of the contents. Apply at this office, where information can be obtained of the package.

A Man Drowned.

A correspondent of the Bedford Inquirer under date of Feb. 18, gives the following account of the circumstances attending the death of Mr. John Harrison Typper, of Hopewell, Bedford county, and formerly of Martinsburg, Blair County.

The great "ice freshet," that occurred on last Friday morning, carried away two spans of the county bridge here, which entirely cuts off communication between us and Yellow Creek settlement. The citizens of Hopewell in connection with our Yellow Creek friends, immediately got to work to construct a temporary ferry, to our mutual benefit and accommodation.

Mr. Typper with his usual zeal and energy, which was characteristic of the man, when he could be the means of furthering the interest and convenience of others, applied himself to the accomplishment of this object.

A wire rope was procured that was stretched from the remaining span of the bridge to the opposite shore, and by this means the boat was to be taken back and forth—the current being two swift for any other mode. The ropes were adjusted, and three persons beside himself got into the boat to try the experiment of taking the boat to the opposite shore. When about one-third way across, the pulley to which the rope was attached, refused to work, and it was found necessary to get the boat back to the place of starting; doing this, however, the rope, by some means got loose from the boat, and Mr. Typper with two others, was thrown into the water—the two succeeded in getting into the boat again, but he held on to the rope that had got loose from the boat and that was attached to the wire rope. He was not able to swim and the boat in the meantime was being carried down stream by the current. It was still hoped by those watching the exciting scene, that the men in the boat would reach him before he would be forced by the rushing water to let go. But notwithstanding their manful exertions to rescue him from his perilous situation, they were too late, his hold was loosed, and he sank to rise no more, and what adds still more to the sadness of his friends, his body up to this time, has not been rescued.

He was about thirty years old, and has been in the employ of Lowry, Eichelberger & Co., since the winter of 1861, and his services, and his devoted attention to their interest were highly appreciated by them.

Important Improvement.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Comny have been for a considerable time engaged in constructing a wall of solid masonry in Jack's Narrows, about a mile above this place, to accommodate a double track. This is perhaps one of the most difficult points on the Road for the construction of an additional track, the rugged, almost perpendicular, ascent of the mountain on the right making it absolutely impossible to lay a track on that side, while the canal hugs the present track closely on the left, and the river being in close proximity to the canal. The Company were therefore compelled to build a wall into the canal for the new track, and on this work from 30 to 35 men have been constantly employed for two and a half or three years past. The wall is 3400 feet in length [almost three-quarters of a mile], 20 to 25 high, and 6 feet thick; making about half a million cubic feet. The work is now approaching completion, and it is expected that a double track will be laid within the present year. The work has been under the supervision of Mr. Paul Smith as chief engineer, and reflects much credit on his ability in that capacity.—Mount Union Times.

A Difference of Opinion.

The two Bedford papers have different views of the abilities of Mr. E. H. Uniac as a temperance lecturer. The Inquirer says:

"It (the lecture) was such a treat as we seldom receive up here in the mountains."

The Gazette says:

"His matter is the merest jumble of crudities possible to be uttered."

This assertion is backed up by a scurrilous attack upon Mr. Uniac, from "A Good Templar," (?) which places him in the same category with a "clown," "monkey out of the pulpit," etc.

We have heard Mr. Uniac, and know him to be what we have always represented in our columns. We judge that the bogus "Good Templar" has heard very few lecturers; at least not any who can by proper gesticulation give life to his remarks and carry conviction by due enthusiasm to the hearts of his hearers, as does Mr. U. The temperance cause has lost nothing and will lose nothing by the noble efforts of Mr. Uniac, who, we may add, has, like many other good temperance lecturers, felt the pangs of Intemperance through sad experience. He will lecture in this place on Friday evening next, when our readers will have an opportunity to judge for themselves.

Bear Killed.

On Tuesday last, while Adam Crouse, Isaac Rorer and some others, were engaged near the top of Black-Log Mountain, above the Rorer farm, their dogs discovered a hole in which were the winter quarters of a she bear and two cubs. After considerable fighting and hard work, they succeeded in killing the dam and capturing both the cubs. One of the cubs has since died, from injuries received from the dogs. The mother dressed 120 pounds of meat, which was disposed of in this place yesterday.—Mount Union Times.

Matthews Arrested.

Joseph Matthews, of Shirley township, who on the 23d of October last, burnt down the barn of Wm. P. Goosshorn, in Tell township, and shot and killed his two horses and one colt, was arrested and brought to jail last, Monday, evening. He had been followed by a Mr. Lutz, of this county, with two others, to the residence of his uncle in Indiana county, where he was taken without any resistance, notwithstanding his braggadocio to the contrary.—Matthews is a man of about forty-five years of age, and presents at present anything but a bravado's countenance. When questioned last evening as to why he burned the barn, he sobbingly replied he did not know he was committing an offence; and when asked why he took revenge on the innocent animals, he said that having set the barn on fire he was wild with excitement and didn't know what he was doing. He will be tried at the April sessions, so we will forbear further comment, only adding that he has little or no sympathy in this community.

A reward of $300 had been offered for his capture by the County Commissioners, which sum we believe was augmented by rewards from the people of the lower end of the county.

Pennsylvania Canal.

We clip the following from the recent report of J. Edgar Thompson, President of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company:

"It is believed that the growing bituminous coal and lumber transportation that may be thrown upon the Pennsylvania Canal, at or near Huntingdon, will, upon its enlargement, make it a profitable investment. Above Huntingdon it must, in consequence of a great amount of lockage, eventually be abandoned, and a railway occupy its route, along which there exists an abundant water power to give life and activity to a large manufacturing population."

Corporeal Punishment.

Thou art gone to the grave, but we will not deplore thee
Though sorrow and danger encompass the tomb,
The Saviour has passed through its portals before thee,
And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave, we no longer behold thee,
Nor tread the rough path of the world by thy side,
But the wide arms of mercy were spread to enfold thee,
And sinners may hope since the sinless has died.

Thou art gone to the grave, but 'twere wrong to deplore thee,
When God was thy ransom, thy God and thy guide.
He gave thee and took thee and he has restored thee,
Where death has no sting since the Saviour has died.

LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND

J. W. Bradley's Celebrated Patent

Duplex Elliptic

or Double Spring,

SKIRT.

The wonderful Flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, operas, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, arm chairs, for promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any single spring skirt.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the duplex elliptic steel spring skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For children, misses and young ladies they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the single spring but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The hoops are covered with cambic and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered; preventing them from wearing out when dragging down steps, stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the standard skirt of the fashionable world.

To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinoline, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, enquire for J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic, or double spring skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.

CAUTION—To guard against imposition be particular to notice that skirts offered as "Duplex" have the red ink stamp, viz: J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs' upon the waist band—none others are genuine. Also notice that every hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other spring.

For sale in all stores where first class skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere.

Manufactured by the sole owners of the patent.

Soldiers' Widows.

By applying to W. H. Woods, of Huntingdon, Huntingdon county, Pa., you can have your pensions increased two dollars a month for each and every child you have, and when the widow has married or died, the children are entitled to the increase.

To all who have brought home the bodies of their friends who died or were killed in the service of the United States, there is a certain amount of compensation allowed you for the expenses incurred in bringing home the bodies of your friends, which you can obtain by making application to me.

Invalid Soldiers, Attention!

The act of Congress, approved June 6, 1866, gives additional pensions to the following class of persons:

Soldiers who have lost both eyes or both hands, $25 per month; who have lost both feet $20 per month; who have lost one hand or one foot, or totally disabled in the same, $15 per month.

Persons who have been deprived of their pensions in consequence of being in the civil service of the United States Government, can be restored to the pension roll by applying to me.

Fathers and mothers who were in whole or in part dependent upon their sons for support are entitled to a pension. Also brothers and sisters under sixteen years of age.

All discharged soldiers who did not receive transportation to their places of enlistment when discharged, are entitled to receive it; and also all who were held as prisoners of war, and did not receive commutation of rations when released or discharged, are entitled to it.

Officers who were in the service on the 3d of March, 1865, and were discharged after the 9th of April, 1865, by applying to me can receive three months extra pay.

Soldiers of 1812!

All soldiers, or soldiers' widows, of the war of 1812, who have served two months, or been wounded or disabled in such service, if in necessitous circumstances, are entitled to an annuity of $40.

Local Bounty.

All veteran soldiers who gave their credit to districts in the State of Pennsylvania, and who received no local bounty, are entitled to receive three hundred dollars.

All persons having any of the above mentioned claims, or any other kind of claim against the United States or State Governments, will please address me, giving full particulars, enclosing a stamp for return postage, and they will receive a prompt reply.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Jeff. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebel acts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urge your fath, ers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Material, Hats, Caps, Queensware and a general assortment of Groceries, on as reasonable terms as at any House in town. Store on Southeast corner of the Diamond, Huntingdon, Pa.

Wit, Humor and Wisdom.

☞ The Rev. Zeb Twitchell was the most noted Methodist preacher in Vermont for shrewd and laughable sayings. In the pulpit he maintained a suitable gravity of manner and expression, and out of the pulpit he overflowed with fun. Occasionally, he would, if emergency seemed to require, say something queer in a sermon, for the sake of arousing the flagging attention of his hearers. Seeing that his audience was getting asleep, he paused in his discourse and discussed as follows:

"Brethren, you haven't the least idea of the sufferings of our missionaries in the new settlements, on account of the mosquitoes. The mosquitoes in some of these regions are enormous. A great many of them weigh a pound, and they will get on the logs and bark when the missionaries are going along.

By this time all ears and eyes were open, and he proceeded to finish his discourse.

The next day one of his hearers called him to account for telling lies in the pulpit. "There never was a mosquito that weighed a pound," he said.

"But I didn't say one of them would weigh a pound. I said a great many, and I think a million of them would."

"But you said they barked at the missionaries."

"No, no, brother, I said they would get on the logs and bark."

☞ A gentleman who recently put up at a log tavern in Wisconsin, was awakened by a young man who commenced a serenade thus:

"Oh, Sally Rice,
I've called you twice,
And yet you lie and snore!
I pray you wake,
And see your Jake,
And ope to him the door; or the window, I don't care much which, for
It makes but little difference
To either you or I—
Big pig, little pig,
Root hog, or die."

☞ "What's the matter, Uncle Jerry?" said Mr. ——, as old Jeremiah R. was passing by, growling most furiously.

"Matter," said the old man, stopping short; "why, here I've been lugging water all the morning for Dr. G's wife to wash with, and what d'ye suppose I got for it?"

"Why, I suppose about ten cents," answered Mr. ——.

"Ten cents! She told me the doctor would pull a tooth for me some of these days."

☞ "What are you doing there, Jane?

"Why, pa, I am going to dye doll's dress red?"

"But what have you got to dye it with?"

"Beer."

"Who on earth told you that beer would color red?"

"Why, ma said that it was beer that made your nose look so red, and I thought—"

"Here, Susan, take this child."

☞ A gentleman one day asked a little girl—an only child—how many sisters she had, and was told, "Three or four." Her mother asked Mary, when they were alone, what had induced her to tell such an untruth.—"Why, mamma," cried Mary, "I didn't want him to think you were so poor that you hadn't but one child.—Wouldn't be, thought we were dreffful poor?"

☞ "Sammy, Sammy, my son, don't stand there scratching your head—stir your stumps or you will make no progress in life." "Why, father," replied the hopeful, "I've heard you say that the only way to get along in this world was to scratch a head!"

☞ The lady who did not think it respectable to bring her children up to work, has lately heard from her two sons. One of them is a bar-keeper on a flat-boat, and the other is steward of a brick-yard.

☞ It was said, in the olden times, that the body was more than raiment; but now the raiment is a great deal more than the body in value, and full five times as much in circumference.

☞ An Irishman, on hearing of a friend having a stone coffin made for himself, exclaimed: "By my sowl and that's a good idee. Shure and a stone coffin 'ud last a man a life time."

☞ Never look at girls. They can't bear it; they regard it as an insult.—They wear their feathers, furbelows, frills and fixens, merely to gratify their mammas, that's all.

☞ A Western editor, puffing an express company, says: "Anything intrusted to its care will go through straight." How about a pig's tail?

☞ "Charles, dear, now that we are married, you know, we must have no secret. So, do, like a dove, hand me that bottle of hair dye; you will find it in my dressing case."

☞ Subjects for conundrums being nearly exhausted, one desperate joker has gone back to our first parents, and inquires, "Why was Eve not afraid of the measles? Because she'd Adam.

☞ "Sal," said one girl to another, "I am so glad I have no beau now!"

"Why so?" asked the other.

"Oh, because I can eat as many onions as I please."

☞ The saying "that there is more pleasure in giving than receiving" is made by some to apply to kicks, medicine, advice and counterfeit money.

☞ A German writer says: 'Thieves are so scarce in this country that the authorities are often compelled to offer rewards for them.'

☞ The last case of jealousy is that of a lady who discarded her lover, a sea captain, because he hugged the shore.

☞ A man maketh a wry face over a gill of vinegar; but he taketh down a quart of rye whiskey without a twist of his nose.

☞ The difference between perseverance and obstinacy—the first is a strong will; the second, a strong won't.

☞ What sort of a throat is the best for a singer to reach the high notes with? A soar throat.

PROF. H. M'ENTYRE'S GREAT REMEDY,

INDIAN COMPOUND

Internal and External Medicine,

WILL CURE:

☞ Diarrhœa, Bloody Flux in one day,
☞ Headache and Earache in three minutes.
☞ Toothache in one minute.
☞ Neuralgia in five minutes,
☞ Sprains in twenty minutes,
☞ Sore Throat in ten minutes,
☞ Cholic and Cramp in five minutes,
☞ Rheumatism in one day,
☞ Pain in the Back or Side in ten minutes,
☞ Bad Coughs or Colds in one day,
☞ Fever and Ague in one day.
☞ Cures Deafness, Asthma, Piles,
☞ Bronchitis Affections, Dyspepsia,
☞ Inflammation of the Kidneys, Erysipelas,
☞ Liver Complaint and Palpitation of the Heart.

Keep it in your Families—Sickness comes when least expected.

I propose to check, and effectually dissipate more ache and pain, and to accomplish more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or all other methods of medical aid in the same space of time.

THIS POPULAR REMEDY is fast coming into use, for the fact that I cure, free of charge, all those complaints whenever there is an opportunity to do so. As soon as it is applied it almost miraculously kills the pain. I do not ask you to buy before you are certain of its efficiency. If you have an ache or pain, it is warranted to do all it purports on the label.

I do not propose to cure every disease—only a class named by my directions. My liniment operates on chemical and electric principles, and is therefore applicable to the cure or natural restorative of all organic derangement arising from an improper circulation of the nerve vital fluids.

Prof. J. H. McEntyre's INDIAN COMPOUND acts directly on the absorbents, reducing glandular and other swellings in incredible short time, without any possible danger from its use under any possible circumstances.

This is an internal and external medicine—composed of roots, herbs and barks, such as our forefathers used—There is a bountiful supply on earth to cure all complaints if we only know what they were.

This has been a great study with the Medical Faculty for many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to the above complaints—how to put them together, and what proportions to use. J. H. McENTYRE,
Proprietor, Reading, Pa.
